

Dana Point

— HEADLANDS —

NaturePlayTrips.com

SEPTEMBER 20, 2016

DANA POINT HEADLANDS

Free! Networking Session – Free!

Join us for a hike along the Dana Point Headlands.

The Nature Interpretive Center is an educational, management and operational facility run by the City of Dana Point. It provides information about the local habitat—terrestrial and marine—and the history of Dana Point, in an informal visitor center setting. See amazing views of the Harbor and coastline and experience the natural beauty of the Dana Point Headlands.

Dana Point
Nature
Interpretive Center

Park Ranger guide
through headlands

Walk along the
Bluff Top Trail:

2:30 PM – 4:00 PM

Car pool from the Ocean
Institute
Up Cove Rd, left to Nature Center at 34558 Scenic Dr.

Wear walking shoes, bring water, don't forget sunscreen!