Looking for a long bike ride around Ventura County? There are multiple connecting cities that offer beautiful biking routes that make it accessible to transport back and forth. Some of the best bikeways are all around Ventura: The Coastal Trail, Ojai Bike Trail, Camarillo, Carpentry, and Thousand Oaks.

1. The Coastal Trail is along the 101 and PCH where you have a beautiful coastal view. Along this bike path you will hit multiple parks: Seaside Wilderness Park, Faria County Park, to Rincon Beach Park. One of the popular trails along this route is the Rincon Bike Trail, which allows you to bike from San Buenaventura to Carpentry. This bike ride is about 15 miles along the beautiful coast with ocean views that stretch for miles.

2. The Ojai Valley Bike Trail runs parallel to Highway 33 and begins near Foster Park. This bike ride can range from anywhere between 12 to 20 miles, and has beautiful trees along the way. This trail is wonderful for any bike rider level. Once you arrive in Ojai at Libbey Park, you enter a bike friendly town that has multiple shops and food for you to replenish before your bike ride home.
